CIVIL PARTNERSHIP

This is a programme for you if you're a gay man who is considering entering into a civil partnership or other form of gay "marriage" that grants rights and responsibilities.

It is designed to help you to work through the issues so that you and your partner can make the right decision.

This programme will show you how to:

- explore what your options are
- work out if a civil partnership is for you
- decide how to mark your civil partnership
